

POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR ASSETS

TO PERSON EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT:

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT LEGAL DOCUMENT. IT CREATES A DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY. BEFORE EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU SHOULD KNOW THESE IMPORTANT FACTS.

1. THIS DOCUMENT MAY PROVIDE THE PERSON YOU DESIGNATE AS YOUR ATTORNEY IN FACT WITH BROAD POWERS TO DISPOSE, SELL, CONVEY, AND ENCUMBER YOUR REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.
2. THESE POWERS WILL EXIST FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD OF TIME UNLESS YOU LIMIT THEIR DURATION IN THIS DOCUMENT. THESE POWERS WILL CONTINUE TO EXIST NOTWITHSTANDING YOUR SUBSEQUENT DISABILITY OR INCAPACITY.
3. YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE OR TERMINATE THIS DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY AT ANY TIME.

To Whom It May Concern:

John Smith , hereinafter referred to as the "Principal," presently a resident 45465 Flower Street Corona California 92627 United States , does hereby designate and appoint, Jane Smith , hereinafter referred to as the "Agent" of as the Principal's true and lawful attorney in fact for the Principal and in the Principal's name, place and stead:

1. To manage, control, lease, sublease, and otherwise act concerning any real property which the principal may own; collect and receive rents or income therefrom; pay taxes, charges, and assessments on the same; repair, maintain, protect, preserve, alter, and improve the same; and do all things necessary or expedient to be done in the agent's judgment in connection with the property.
2. To manage and control all partnership interests owned by the principal and to make all decisions the principal could make as a general partner, limited partner, or both, and to execute all documents required of the principal as such partner, all to the extent that the agent's designation for such purposes is allowed by law and is not in contravention of any partnership or other agreement.
3. To purchase, sell, invest, reinvest and generally deal with all stocks, bonds, debentures, warrants, partnership interests, rights, and securities owned by the principal.
4. To collect and deposit for the benefit of the principal all debts, interest, dividends or other assets that may be due or belong to the principal, and to execute and deliver receipts and other discharges therefore; to demand, arbitrate, and pursue litigation on the principal's behalf concerning all rights and benefits to which the principal may be entitled; and to compromise, settle, and discharge all such matters as the agent considers appropriate under the circumstances.
5. To pay any sums of money which may at any time be or become owing from the principal, to sell, and to adjust and compromise any claims which may be made against the principal as the agent considers appropriate under the circumstances.
6. To grant, sell, transfer, mortgage, deed in trust, pledge and otherwise deal in all property, real and personal, which the principal may own; including but not limited to any real property described on any exhibit attached to this instrument including property acquired after execution of this instrument; to attach exhibits to this instrument which provide legal descriptions of all such property; and to execute such instruments as the agent deems proper in conjunction with all matters covered in this paragraph 6.

7. To prepare and file all income and other federal and state tax returns which the principal is required to file; to sign the principal's name; hire preparer(s) and advisors and pay for their services; and to do whatever is necessary to protect the principal's assets from assessments for income taxes and other taxes for the years 1990 to 2030. The agent is specifically authorized to receive confidential information; to receive checks in payment of any refund of taxes, penalties, or interest; to execute waivers (including offers of waivers) of restrictions on assessment or collection of tax deficiencies and waivers of notice of disallowance of claims for credit or refund; to execute consents extending the statutory period for assessment or collection of taxes; to execute closing agreements under Internal Revenue Code §7121, or any successor statute; and to delegate authority or substitute another representative with respect to all above matters.

8. To deposit in and draw on any checking, savings, agency, or other accounts which the principal may have in any banks, savings and loan associations, and any accounts with securities brokers or other commercial institutions, and to establish and terminate all such accounts.

9. To invest and reinvest the principal's funds in every kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not limited to, corporate obligations of every kind; preferred or common stocks; shares of investment trusts, investment companies, and mutual funds; mortgage participations; that, under the circumstances then prevailing (specifically including but not limited to the general economic conditions and the principal's anticipated needs) persons of skill, prudence, and diligence acting in a similar capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a similar character and with similar aims, to attain the principal's goals; and to consider individual investments as part of an overall plan.

10. To have access to all safe deposit boxes in the principal's name or to which the principal is an authorized signatory; to contract with financial institutions for the maintenance and continuation of safe deposit boxes in the principal's name; to add to and remove the contents of all such safe deposit boxes; and to terminate contracts for all such safe deposit boxes.

11. To make additions and transfer assets to any and all living revocable trusts of which the principal is a settlor.

12. To make direct payments to the provider for tuition and medical care for the principal's issue under Internal Revenue Code §2503(e) or any successor statute, which excludes such payment from gift tax liability.

13. To use any credit cards in the principal's name to make purchases and to sign charge slips on behalf of the principal as may be required to use such credit cards; and to close the principal's charge accounts and terminate the principal's credit cards under circumstances where the agent considers such acts to be in the principal's best interest.

14. Generally to do, execute, and perform any other act, deed, matter, or thing, that in the opinion of the agent ought to be done, executed, or performed in conjunction with this power of attorney, of every kind and nature, as fully and effectively as the principal could do if personally present. The enumeration of specific items, acts, rights, or powers in this instrument does not limit or restrict, and is not to be construed or interpreted as limiting or restricting, the general powers granted to the agent except where powers are expressly restricted. The agent is authorized and directed to commence enforcement proceedings, at the principal's expense, against any third party who fails to honor this durable power of attorney.

15. Notwithstanding any other possible language to the contrary in this instrument, the agent is specifically not granted the following powers:

(a) To use the principal's assets for the agent's own legal obligations, including but not limited to support of the agent's dependents;

(b) To exercise any trustee powers under a trust of which the agent is a settlor and the principal is a trustee, unless such powers are stated therein; and

(c) To exercise incidents of ownership over any life insurance policies which the principal owns on the agent's life.

16. Any third party from whom the agent may request information, records, or other documents regarding the principal's personal affairs may release and deliver all such information, records, or documents to the agent. The principal hereby waives any privilege that may apply to release of such information, records, or other documents.

17. The agent's signature under the authority granted in this power of attorney may be accepted by any third party or organization with the same force and effect as if the principal were personally present and acting on the principal's own behalf. No person or organization who relies on the agent's authority under this instrument shall incur any liability to the principal, the principal's estate, heirs, successors, or assigns, because of reliance on this instrument.

18. The principal's estate, heirs, successors, and assigns shall be bound by the agent's acts under this power of attorney.

19. This power of attorney shall not be affected by the principal's subsequent disability or incapacity.

20. The principal hereby ratifies and confirms all that the agent shall do, or cause to be done, by virtue of this power of attorney.

21. The principal declares that the principal understands the importance of this durable power of attorney, recognizes that the agent is granted broad power to hold, administer, and control the principal's assets, and recognizes that this durable power of attorney will become effective immediately on execution and will continue indefinitely until specifically revoked by the principal or terminated by death, even if the principal later becomes incapacitated.

22. If a conservatorship of the Principal's person or estate or both is deemed necessary, or a guardianship of the person or estate, the principal hereby nominates Jane Smith as conservator of the principal's person and estate and as guardian of the person and the estate. On the appointment of a conservator of the principal's estate, this power of attorney shall terminate and the agent shall deliver the assets of the principal under the agent's control as directed by the conservator of the principal's estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the principal has signed this durable power of attorney on 2017-03-08.
